
Supetar - Island Brac

Supetar is a lively Mediterranean city on the northern side of Brac, and at the same time it's center. It is famous for its architecture, interesting past and rich cultural tradition. It is very well connected with Split by ferryboat. Due to its long, beautiful gravel and sand beaches surrounded with pine woods, and for its crystal blue sea it has acquired a reputation as a wonderful bathing resort. The coast around Supetar, between Mirca in the west and Splitska in the east, delight guests of all ages. Everything is easily reachable there: restaurants, stores, post-office, bank, market, cinema, galleries, health services, different sports facilities (tennis courts, diving, sailing, fishing, bike renting, row-boat renting and pedalines, water skiing, scooter renting and motorized boats...) Free concerts, folk nights, theatre performances and all kinds of events that are organized by the Cultural Summer of Supetar will make the guests' vacations even more interesting.
